SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 22, 1862.

OUR Two GOVERNMENTS & THEIR CIRCULARS.

DURING the debate on the Capital question, serious fears were entertained that the co-existence or vicinity of National and Provincial Governments would lead to rivalry and perhaps hostility. It is our pleasing duty to congratulate both the President and Governor on the good beginning made by their several cabinets for the reform and advancement of the Republic and of Buenos Aires. We have been so long tormented with the ideas of alta politica, that it is a cheering relief to find our rulers devote themselves soberly to common-place subjects, such as immigration, rural police &c.

The National premier has always borne a high character in public as well as private life, and as the secret of good government consists in choosing fit instruments we have to thank Gen. Mitre for placing such a friend of progress at the helm of the State. Dr. Rawson may be said to have commenced his ministry with immigration: descended of American parentage he could not fail to perceive that the fleets of needy but industrious colonists which crowded the seaports of the U. States conveyed thither a fund of national wealth more productive than the goldfields of Australia or California. The prosperity of a new country may be estimated by its increase of population, and where immigrants are few, civilization retrogrades. As our distinguished American friend, Mr. Wheelright, expresses himself "land is valueless without inhabitants"; and the immense Argentine pampas contain a field for labor and development, superior to any country in Europe. If you would make productive our great resources, if you would have a safe-guard against civil war—if you would erect a frontier line on the Indian territory,' stronger than the Chinese Wall—if you would possess the philosopher's stone or Aladdin's lamp—seek immigration.

To give stimulus to this great object, Dr. Rawson has sent a circular to the several Governors of Provinces, inquiring what facilities or premiums each can offer for the introduction of European settlers, and for good example this patriotic citizen bestows 6,000 cuadras or 20,000 English acres, his own inheritance, in the province of San Juan, to be distributed among agricultural families who may be tempted from Europe by the offer. The Australian colonies have hitherto attracted thousands by a free passage and grant of 40 acres: no doubt if Sta. Fe, Tucuman, Cordoba, and the rest hold out equal inducements we shall be equally successful and our new railways &c. will receive fresh impulse and vigor.

If we turn to the provincial Government we have like admiration for Gov. Saavedra's circular to the camp municipalities. Every one agrees with us that here is the greatest room for sweeping reforms. Hitherto there was some excuse in the constant state of war, but we could not tolerate during (may we hope) a long term of peace the grievances which lazy people would call inseparable from camp life. Horse stealing became almost an incident of the climate, and murder was frequent: the criminals were seldom caught or punished. It cannot be denied that a gaucho mounted on a fleet horse is not easily overtaken, and every allowance must be made for the terrible transitions we have experienced. Still we look a great improvement, and confide that Gov. Saavedra will not content himself with mere promises, but shew us deeds of solid reformation. The municipalities are required to give returns of their revenues, police & public works, and specify the proper sites for constructing new towns. We understand Comisarios are about to be placed in the several partidos, with a proper force, and a few months will place the laws on a proper footing. The Government is animated with the best intentions, some of the camp justices are good men, ready to aid the authorities in a healthy change, and in fact there is but one impediment, the vis inertiae (mañana), to check the march of order and justice so happily inaugurated by G. Mitre, and in which Gov. Saavedra is nobly endeavoring to follow, passibus aequis.

PUBLIC LANDS OF SANTA FE

OUR attention has been called to the rescinding of the sales of public lands, by the Government of Santa Fe. As we firmly belief in the old proverb, that one story is good until the other is told, we will not charge the Government of that Province with illegal use of power, until we hear their side of the question.

The Government of Santa Fe has given every proof of an enlightened policy. We have had the pleasure of frequent interviews, not only with the minister, but also the talented Senator representing that province. It has reciprocated with us in our cotton efforts; it has made, and is making, every effort for the introduction of immigrants; its prosperous colonies are incontrovertible proof of the wisdom and liberality of its rulers. We cannot therefore, on the bare assertion of probably an interested party, charge it with acts which even mob law would discountenance. We cannot hold it up in a foreign land as a sad example of repudiation, dishonor and violation of civil rights. But if we stand up as the champions of Santa Fe, we cannot, in justice to the public which supports us, refuse to give publicity to statements which, prima facie, have rather a serious aspect. On the 30th of May 1855, a law was passed by the Legislature of Santa Fe, authorising the sale of the public lands of that Province: on the 5th of October 1855, another law was duly passed by the legislature of Santa Fe, by which the Governor was empowered to sell and transfer the public lands of that province, according to the rules and regulations in such cases made and provided.

In obedience to these laws, sales were effected and transfers made for valuable consideration paid and received.

Many of the purchasers were foreigners, and although the price now may seem low, still at the period of the sales the price was considered the full value of the land in question.

Subsequently, the Executive sent in a report of such sales to the legislature, and by virtue of a law passed Oct. 22d 1858 all such sales were ratified and approved of.

There could be no question therefore as to the legality of the transfers: if the proceeds were misapplied it cannot be for a moment supposed that the purchasers, who are innocent third parties, should suffer.

We are informed that now all these sales have been annulled by the present legislature of Santa Fe, and that the rights of the purchasers are totally disregarded and trampled on. We can hardly credit that this is possible, and hope that some explanation will be given, which will exonerate the Santa Fe Government from so serious a charge.

We candidly say that we require the most unquestionable evidence to convince us the Government of Santa Fe has dared to attempt such a sweeping abrogation of civil rights.

EDITOR's TABLE.

SR. ELORTONDO's new house in Calle Piedad, between Reconquista and San Martin, has been taken by the London and River Plate Bank. We are well pleased that the manager has been so fortunate as to obtain so central a position. In a few days it will be opened to the public. Its prospectus, &c, will be seen in another column.

The arrival of English manufactured goods from Cordova, is hardly to be credited; yet we have been assured, on the best authority, that it is a fact. This, if true, is a sad proof of the state of the interior, and gives little hope of a good provincial demand springing up.

Great complaints are coming to us respecting the foreign claims. Yesterday we were invited to publish a violent article on this subject. As we, however, feel that the National Government is doing all it can in the matter, we declined to publish it. Our character for fearlessly attacking abuses and speaking the truth, is, we consider, too well established to admit of doubt; but we will not sacrifice our position, by lending ourselves to complaints which are without foundation. The Argentine Government has evinced every anxiety to meet these claims, and do what is right in the matter.

We take pleasure in calling attention to the advertizement of Spalding and Rogers great American circus, expected here in the course of a few days. This company is composed of the finest artists in the profession and their performances in Rio and the Brazils have been attended with the most triumphant success. We trust a like reception awaits them here.

WHAT ABOUT COTTON!

IT seemed, at first, that Government took some interest in cotton-planting, and several respectable parties were infected with the new fever. A lull has, however set in; now we are daily expecting a large consignment, with the requisite machines, and yet neither the Ministry nor local paper evince the least jubilation. The ultimate success of our labors will be more peculiarly all our own since we have no associates in the enterprise: but we are not selfish, and should rather see our colleagues striving equally for national advancement.

Our Scotch friend with two bags of seed, loses hope in cotton, and purposes buying sheep at Chascomus. This is a pity, for we have no lack of graziers, and it would suit the state to make an experiment on a large scale with the above mentioned seed. If Buenos Aires does not offer him a premium we advise Mr. N. to try Sta. Fe where Gov. Cullen is alive to the immense importance of cotton.

It will be little honor to our enlightened city, if our supply, per Lady of the Lake, be not mostly taken up here: we have sent round treatises in Spanish and English to our legislators, but strange to say the sympathy felt in Sta. Fé and Corrientes has not been contagious, and, while some private citizens appreciate our efforts for our adopted country, we have to take our own trumpet and shout in the ears of Gen. Mitre and Gov. Saavedra the santo of the Standard.

"What about Cotton."?

LETTER FROM PARANA.

November 7th, 1862,

Respecting what you require from me, about the Provinces of the Interior, I am truly sorry that I can not give you the information you require for your Handbook.

It is true, I have travelled from North America to this by land, and in every part of South America I am well acquainted, more particularly in the Argentine Provinces. At the same time, you will take into consideration that from 1817, when I first commenced my roving propensities, I did it for mere pleasure, consequently no particular notes were taken at the time, and even if I had, they would be of very little use now, from the great improvement in all the provinces. Take the following as an example: I knew Buenos Ayres when the esquina of the calles Cangallo and Suipacha was "cercado de tunas." The provinces I am well acquainted with having resided for a short time in each, and always riding from one to the other; but at that time I was a military character, a good horseman, and was entrusted by the commander-in-chief of the army in many ways: this was in a time when war desolated the provinces; and though their resources were, and are, very great in every one of them, still no just idea of their present state can be given. Catamarca, and especially La Rioja, are two of the poorest provinces in the Confederation, and I have known and seen four armies maintained well in La Rioja, in every article that roving armies require, except cattle, and these were brought from the neighbouring provinces. Respecting this province, the poverty of it is increasing, owing to the dearth that has been throughout the winter.

The major part of the estancieros were in great expectation of having large herds of cattle ready, and in good order, for the saladeros to begin working.

I beg to enclose you a little cotton, grown near this city, with the seed, which is of growth. Let me know your opinion of it. I think I shall employ a few hours in having cultivated a slip of land, with 50 or 100,000 cotton plants.

Should any thing transpire worthy of public attention I shall make you acquainted with it; in the meantime I beg to remain yours &c.

THE "PAMPERO"

To the Editors of the "Standard"

The undersigned will be very much obliged if you will publish the following report of the committee which has inspected the engines of the National steamer Pampero

Yours very truly

Henry Dowse

Agent

Buenos Aires 14th Nov. 1862

To the captain of the Port, Colonel Don Francisco Segui.

The undersigned with due respect requests that you may appoint a competent committee for the examination of the engine and boilers of the National steamer Pampero before Tuesday next week, Nov. 18th

May God preserve you &c.

Henry Dowse.

Nov. 14th 1862.

The second captain of the Port Colonel Don Antonio Somellera and the Inspector of the steamer Mr, Edward Davies Engineer, are appointed to practise the survey which has been requested reporting thereon, herewith.

Signed—Segui

The undersigned in fulfilment of your order of yesterday, have gone on board the National steam packet Pampero and having placed the engines under 18 pounds steam pressure, which from the circumstances of the vessel being motionless, may be considered as of greater power than if it were under way, a prolix survey of the machinery, boilers and pipes took place being perfect and in good working order for any voyage.

Buenos Aires Nov. 18th 1862.

Antonio Somellera—E. Davies.

FOREIGN MISCELLANY.

—Holy Russia has been celebrating her "thousandth" anniversary at Novogorod, where the Czar the Czarina, and all the Grand Dukes and Grand Duchesses have appeared to ornament the scene and consecrate a lie. It is certainly a bold yet an amusing effort to establish a title to antiquity of race and royalty, for the descendant of the Dukes of Moscow to lay claim to the inheritance of a thousand years' sovereignty, but having made the preposterous claim, he was wise in laying the venue in Novogorod. Even our friend Mr. Turnerelli, with all his enthusiasm for the Romanoffs as evinced in his interesting history of Kazan, will, we think, be a little surprised at this pretension of the Muscovites to a thousand years of sovereignty. But let it pass. It is a harmless vanity, and it is much better for the Czar to be indulging in it than in irritating and grinding down Poland for asking a restitution of her liberty and rights while he gives his sanction and approval to rebellion, treason, and revolutionary schemes in Italy.

—General M'Clellan has vindicated his military reputation against the despicable calumnies of the boasting blockhead Mr. Attorney (General) Pope, and restored to some extent the credit of the Federal Army. Having ascertained that the Confederates had crossed the Potomac in force and were marching through Maryland to Pennsylvania, he started at once from Washington, taking with him the bulk of his army, and by forced marches came up with the enemy under General Lee, within twelve miles of Baltimore. Here a series of battles took place for four days with various success, until the 18th of September, when night put an end to a terrible combat that lasted from dawn to dusk, each army holding the ground it occupied in the morning. In the morning the Confederates were gone; but the Federals did not think proper to pursue them or interrupt their retreat, if so it should be called. As the federals remained last on the field of battle, they are fairly entitled to claim a victory, which General M'Clellan has done, but with the modesty of a true soldier, and a brave man. In the last action the Confederate General Lee was reported to be wounded, and it is stated by General M'Clellan that one of his Generals was killed and thirteen wounded, some seriously. This slaughter of general officers is unprecedentedly great, and requires explanation. Among the wounded we are sorry to see the name of Mr Thomas Francis Meagher. The ubiquitous "Stonewall" Jackson came into the field in time to rescue the Confederate army from a position of danger, after making himself a successful assault upon the strong Federal position at Harper's Ferry, where he made 6,000 soldiers well equipped, well protected, and amply provided with everything necessary to withstand a heavy siege, prisoners of war. It has been remarked, and it is curious, that throughout this lamentable and insane civil war, invasion has always suffered defeat no matter who was the invader. Why do not both parties take a prudent lesson from this fact, and agree to cry quits,—leaving the Border States free to decide their own future fate and threw in their lot with whichever side they please?

—The next packet will probably bring us decisive news from Mexico. Twenty-five thousand French troops had landed at Vera Cruz towards the end of August in good health, and the wonderful Mexican heroes who were burning to be led against the invaders in order to eat them up, have it seems disappeared like the mirage before the advance of the traveller. There is no longer a Mexican army, and Messrs Juarez and Doblado were only thinking at the departure of the last advices from the capital how to save themselves and ward off the just punishment of their great and grievous crimes.

—Since the Great Earthquake at Lisbon there has not been so appalling a destruction of human life and property as that which was caused at Canton and Whampoa by a typhoon, the account of which reached this country a few days ago. No less than 15,000 dead bodies were rescued from the Canton river, for which the mandarins paid 15 000 dollars. The whole of the lives lost amounted to the enormous sum of forty thousand. Canton has been reduced to a heap of ruins. The shock of the typhoon was felt for 1,500 miles along the coast.

—The Queen of Spain is making a tour through a portion of her territory, and is everywhere received with enthusiasm. The Peninsula is enjoying unprecedented repose and prosperity, thanks to the wise administration of Marshal O'Donell, whom Lord Palmerston's paper, the Morning Post so pertinaciously bespattered with abuse for many years when he was restoring order in Spain, as the prelude to social progress.

LOCAL EVENTS.

THE BANK—having refused a deposit of $1,750,000 taken there by Mr. Alfred Lumb, the case was brought before the Government, who after hearing the report of the Bank Director and the Fiscal, have approved the measure of the bank.

CANARIES—A large assortment of singing birds has been brought from Germany, to be found on sale at calle Piedad 86.

THE NATIONAL GUARD—in the country districts amounts according to our official statement to over 40,000 men.

IN THE LATE FIRE—of the house of the public notary Sr. Pardo, a sergeant of the Artillery Pedro Pellone rushed into the flames and succeeded in saving a box which contained $88,000 currency.

NOTICE.

WE beg to inform our friends and the public in general, that we have this day transferred our establishment, No. 97 calle Defensa, to Mr MICHAEL J. BARRY and Mr JOHN WALKER, who will henceforth continue the business on their account.

In availing ourselves of this opportunity to return our warmest thanks for the support with which we have been favoured for many years, we would solicit a similar confidence for our successors, satisfied that they will devote equal attention to the requirements of all classes of customers.

JAMES BELL and CO,
calle de la Defensa.

Buenos Ayres, 11th August 1862.

All persons having any claim, or being indebted to us, are requested to arrange such accounts at their earliest convenience. In the meantime, we shall be happy to devote our personal services to the interests of the new firm.

NOTICE.

REFERRING to the foregoing advertisement, we beg to notify that we have this day formed a partnership under the firm of

and that the same business hitherto carried on by Messrs James Bell and Co, at 97 calle Defensa, will be continued by us, from and after the 16th inst.

We earnestly assure our friends, and all who may favor us with their patronage, that no exertion on our part shall be wanting, to merit the same support which our predecessors have for a long period enjoyed, and a continuance of which we respectfully solicit.

M. J. Barry.

BARGAINS from AUCTIONS.

Bramantes, lienzos, calicoes, handkerchiefs, cloths and clothing of all kinds, obtained at the cash auctions, at 40 per cent less than the regular prices, and sold at the same rates; also fancy articles, perfumeries, kid gloves, straw and felt hats, soaps, ribbons, gum combs and hair pins, and in fact all articles composing a General Store or Bazaar, sold retail. Store open until 10 at night. Country stores supplied at wholesale: to such we sell lienzos, warranted cotton handkerchiefs and other articles, at even a discount on our own retail prices: and to give an adequate idea of our prices, it is only necessary to say that, even in the present state of the market, we sell good strong lienzo at 3 dollars the yard, and good Bramante—viz, Barbour Barclay's—No [illegible] dollars the piece of 20 English yards. Always on hand, Gifford's No 1 calico and others of first class, straw hats, with broad brims, and silk lined. [illegible] goods of all sorts coming in so constantly as to render it impossible to advertise them in detail. We merely invite attention to our general assortment, notifying the public that we do not confine ourselves to any class of goods especially, but buy up whatever can be found at the cash auctions, provided the article be first class, never buying or selling damaged goods of any sort. Highly Important to Consumers of Kerosene Oil.

It having come to the knowledge of the undersigned, that servants who had been sent to the Gran Emporio de Luz del Plata, No. 59 calle Florida, for Oil, have been enticed to go elsewhere and purchase, and as such deception is calculated not only to impair the reputation of this establishment, but also to produce consequences of the most serious nature, the public are especially cautioned against this species of imposture. None but genuine Kerosene Oil—entirely free from colour or inflammability—has ever been, or will be, sold at this establishment.
